Minor International Public Company Limited (MINT) has been named Company of the Year 2026 award in the Tourism Sector at the Money & Banking Awards 2026, recognizing the Company's outstanding business performance and commitment to creating long-term value for shareholders.

Mr. Dillip Rajakarier, Group CEO of Minor International, represented the Company in accepting the prestigious award at the ceremony.

The Money & Banking Awards recognize listed companies that have demonstrated exceptional performance across a range of key financial and market indicators. The selection criteria include market capitalization, net profit generation, returns to shareholders, and stock liquidity, reflecting companies that have consistently delivered strong business fundamentals and sustainable value creation.

Commenting on the recognition, Mr. Dillip Rajakarier said, “We are honored to receive this award, which reflects the dedication of our teams and the strength of our long-term strategy. This recognition underscores our resilience, disciplined execution, and strategic focus on long-term growth despite an evolving global business landscape. We commit to delivering sustainable growth, creating value for our shareholders, and continuing to enhance our position as a leading global hospitality company. We thank our employees, customers, partners, and investors for their continued trust and support."
