

COMPANY ANNOUNCEMENT
PRESS RELEASE*FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*27 Aug 2026*MINT Earns Six Prestigious Awards at the 16th Asian Excellence Awards 2026

Minor International Public Company Limited (MINT) is proud to announce that the Company has been honored with six prestigious awards at the 16th Asian Excellence Awards 2026, organized by Corporate Governance Asia, a leading Hong Kong-based publication focused on environmental, social, and governance (ESG) practices, corporate leadership, and investor relations across Asia.

At the awards ceremony in Hong Kong, Mr. Dillip Rajakarier, MINT's Group Chief Executive Officer, was named Asia's Best CEO, while Mr. Chaipayat Paitoon, Chief Financial Officer, received the Asia's Best CFO award. The Company was also recognized with four additional accolades: Sustainable Asia Award, Best Investor Relations Company, Best Investor Relations Professional, and Best Corporate Communications.

The Asian Excellence Awards recognize outstanding leadership and excellence in corporate governance, financial management, investor relations, corporate communications, and sustainability among Asia's leading listed companies. MINT's continued recognition underscores its commitment to maintaining the highest standards of transparency, effective stakeholder engagement, and responsible business practices while delivering sustainable long-term value.

Commenting on the achievement, Dillip Rajakarier, Group CEO of Minor International, said: "We are deeply honored to be recognized once again by Corporate Governance Asia. These awards reflect the collective dedication of our teams across the organization and reinforce our commitment to strong corporate governance, transparent communications, and sustainable value creation. As we continue to expand our global footprint, we remain focused on earning the trust of our shareholders, investors, guests, partners, and other stakeholders through disciplined execution, responsible growth, and open engagement."
