MINT Wins Seven Honors at the 2026 Extel (Institutional Investor Research) Asia-Pacific Equities Awards, Including Asia's Best CEO and Best CFO

Minor International Public Company Limited (MINT) is pleased to announce that it has won seven awards at the 2026 Extel Asia-Pacific Equities Awards in the Consumer Services sector. The awards are based on independent votes from 5,581 investors, portfolio managers, and analysts representing 1,249 firms. Organized by Extel, formerly known as Institutional Investor Research, a leading independent global research firm and benchmark provider for the capital markets. For over five decades, Extel has conducted annual rankings and surveys evaluating listed companies, corporate leaders, and financial institutions across key markets worldwide, including Asia Pacific, Europe, North America, and Latin America.

At the awards ceremony in Hong Kong, Mr. Dillip Rajakarier, MINT's Group Chief Executive Officer, earned top honors as Asia's Best CEO, while Mr. Chaiyapat Paitoon, Chief Financial Officer, was named Asia's Best CFO, both securing 1st Place in their respective categories. Ms. Namida Artispong, Group Director - Investor Relations, also received a 3rd Place ranking among Asia's Best Investor Relations Professionals. MINT further strengthened its standing among Asia's leading listed companies with four additional awards: Best Investor Relations Program, Best Company Board of Directors, Best ESG, and Most Honored Company in the Consumer Services sector.

The Extel Asia-Pacific Equities Awards are widely regarded as a premier benchmark of excellence in leadership, corporate governance, financial management, investor relations, and sustainability. These recognitions reaffirm MINT's position among the region's leading corporates, reflecting the strength of its leadership, commitment to transparency and stakeholder engagement, and a dedication to creating sustainable long-term value through responsible and disciplined business practices.

Mr. Dillip Rajakarier, Group CEO of Minor International, said: "We are deeply honored to receive these awards from Extel. This recognition reflects our commitment to strong governance and transparent communication, as well as the ambition and dedication of our people around the world. As Minor enters its next chapter of growth, we will stay focused on disciplined execution, purposeful investment, and creating lasting value for all our stakeholders. Trust is earned through action, and these awards inspire us to keep raising the bar in everything we do."
